

Women of Color Caucus & Anti-White Supremacy Taskforce

of the National Women's Studies Association present

“Stop Dreaming, Keep Working and Dream Again” Stop Dreaming, Keep Working VI Alliances for Social Change and Justice Workshop January Governing Council Midyear Meeting

Millennium Hotel Cincinnati
150 West Fifth Street
Cincinnati, OH
USA 45202-2393
Telephone: (513) 352-2100 (call for hotel room reservations)
Fax: (513) 352- 2148

January 25, 2008

9am-5pm (followed by reception)

The purpose of the gathering is continue the work to build and enlarge antiracist community within NWSA by naming the difficulties and barriers and creating strategies to keep ourselves moving toward positive change. This is the sixth mid-year gathering organized to coincide with the mid-year governing council meeting of the NWSA. Both the workshop and the meeting are open to all NWSA members. This year's workshop will be an interactive workshop grounded in a set of common readings and shared experiences. (Readings will be made available in advance)

Workshop registration is $65.00 (Sliding scale payments available based on ability to pay are welcomed) made out to National Women's Studies Association (NWSA) and sent to 7100 Baltimore Ave, Ste. 502, College Park, MD 20740. Registration deadline is 01/10/2008.

Name
Institution/Affiliation
Address
Telephone
Email

Questions or comments? Contact: Pat Washington (PatWashingtonPhD@aol.com); Sheena Malhotra (sheena.malhotra@csun.edu), Ann Russo (arusso@depaul.edu), or Aimee Carrillo Rowe (aimee-carrillorowe@uiowa.edu).

Contact the Millennium Hotel directly at (513) 352-2100 to make room reservations.